OUR MOTTO:

A Square Deal to Everyone

Lloyd Henning spent Sunday, with his parents at Pinta.

Winslow and Flagstaff are preparing to celebrate the 4th of July.

Have you bought that Gem Range yet? Lowest price; Highest grade. See A. & B. Schuster.

The Auto-mobile with J. T. Harley, J. A. Root Dr. Brazelle, Winslow and Mr. Day of Adamana, made a trip to St. Johns and Springerville, this week. It won't be many moons until every one in Holbrook, will be driving an auto-mobile.

The merchants of Holbrook are all live up-to-date business men, who know how to build up a town and community.

We received a letter from G. T. Cline dated at Denver, Colo. the 4th, saying he had seen the fixtures for the Merchants and Stockgrowers Bank and that they are fine and would be shipped about the tenth.

H. H. Scorse came in from his ranch Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Crouse are keeping house in the Boyer property.

The offering for an artesian well here in Holbrook now amounts to considerable; G. T. Cline and H. H. Scorse each offering $500.00.

Mrs. Robt. Scott and children came in from Phoenix, Sunday, and left Monday, for Showlow.

Miss Henning, of Pinta, was visiting her brother Lloyd, Sat.

W. H. Clark, of the Brick Co. informs us they will begin burning a kiln of brick this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zuck drove out to their ranch Sunday.

John Connor and A. M. Boyer completed the Warren building and returned to town Saturday.

Last Tuesday, freight engine No. 968 got off the track here while switching and it required the wrecking crew to place it back on the rail; undoing this several ties and one rail were broken and several rails bent and turned over. The engine was placed on the track at about ten o'clock and by five o'clock the next morning A. Lopez, the section foreman, had all damages repaired. Mr. Lopez makes things fly when he gets after them.

J. T. Harley, of Albuquerque, Assistant Manager of the Occidental Life Insurance Co., was in town Wednesday and made us a call. Mr. Harley is a good man representing a good company and we are always pleased to see him.

T. F. Tucker shipped several hundred head of cattle from here to Colo. yesterday.

Several trains loaded with sheep were shipped from here this week for Kansas City markets.

W. H. Clark, who is handling most of the wool; says there will be about two million pounds of wool shipped from Holbrook this year.

Mrs. R. C. Smith went to Taylor, the first of the week to see a sick sister.

J. A. Root, of Adamana, was in town Wednesday.

C. I. Houk, of Heber, was in the city yesterday.
